Butler County Historical Society Presents: Victorian Mourning Traditions
2:00 pm
Location: Activity Center, Westover
Victorian mourning traditions were established during the mid to late 1800s by Queen Victoria upon the death of her husband, Prince Albert. Find out why clocks were stopped in the house at the time of death, why mirrors were covered, why the dearly departed was carried out feet first, and other funeral customs, some of which are still observed today.

Wheel of Fortune
7:00 pm
Location: Haith Dining Room, Berkeley Square
Wheel of Fortune is a game where the board automatically reveals letters one by one until a team says the correct solution. The tossups tend to reward better puzzle solvers, not clever strategists. This is a fun game that you won’t want to miss! Popcorn and drinks will be provided.

Hamilton History: Trivial Pursuit
2:30 after resident meeting
Location: Theobald Hall, Berkeley Square
Come and join us for a special opportunity to learn more about the city of Hamilton. This will be similar to Trivial Pursuit, but without the teams. We will be asking questions and see who knows the answers. If you have lived here your whole life or are brand new, this is a great way to learn more about the wonderful city that we live in!

SPOTLIGHT ON GIVING

A New Look at Your IRA

As the year ends, you may be thinking about your IRA.

An IRA rollover allows you to transfer money from your IRA to a qualified charity, like Community First. Here's how it works:

- You have to be age 70½ or older
- You transfer up to $100,000 directly from your IRA to a charity
- The transfer satisfies your required minimum distribution up to $100,000
- Because you never paid income tax on it, you do not receive an income tax deduction

Just because you are forced to distribute money from your IRA doesn’t mean you have to pay tax on it depending on how you distribute it.

For the IRA rollover to work, it is crucial to transfer the money directly to charity rather than taking the distribution yourself.

For more information and to learn more, contact us at (513) 785-4794 or DevelopmentOffice@Community-First.org.
